

Girls need your help

Our reseller program offers the chance for you to donate your commission to Plan International. The donations will be directed to Because I am a Girl-campaign that fights against gender inequality, promotes girls' rights and lifts millions of girls out of poverty.

Founded over 70 years ago, Plan is one of the oldest and largest international development agencies in the world. It works in 66 countries and aims to achieve lasting improvements in the quality of life of deprived children in developing countries.

How to Donate?

During the reseller signup page, please select "Donate" to show your intention of donating your proceedings to Because I am a Girl campaign.

Thank you for supporting Plan International! For more information on the organization please visit www.plan-international.org
